

HISTORICAL WALK Along Renfrew Creek

WITH HISTORIAN BRUCE MACDONALD

We will follow the path of Renfrew Creek while learning about the ecological history of the watershed, guided by Bruce MacDonald, author of Vancouver: A Visual History. The walk begins at Kaslo and Charles, goes through Hastings Park, and ends at New Brighton Park, where we will enjoy some warm drinks and snacks and participate in an informal discussion about the future of Renfrew Creek and New Brighton Park.

Sunday, November 17 | 1 - 4 pm | free event

Meet on the corner of Kaslo and Charles St.
Bring weather-appropriate clothing and walking shoes.
The walk will be approximately 3 km.
